

Please don't let my local translator for K-LOVE radio be displaced by an LPFM broadcaster. This is the station that my family listens to 90% of the time. It is very important to myself as a parent that this station remains in our area to provide the type of music and comments that my 2 teens prefer. I believe in the work that K-LOVE does that I financially support their station.